Honey Loaf

A Recipe for Courage

Fall is here, and with it the stress:
will I be able to bake?

Courage!
It's all a balance between listening to instructions and hearing your own voice.
Respect the science of baking, concentrate,
and fly.
Your loaves will be devoured,
Your creation admired,
and magic will win the day.

Yield: Two 8.5 x 4.5-inch loaf pans or one 10-cup Bundt pan

Ingredients:

- 3 large eggs (preferably room temperature)
- 1 cup granulated sugar (200 grams)
- 1 cup vegetable oil minus one tablespoon (about 200 grams)
- 1 cup honey (340 grams)
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2 1/4 teaspoons baking powder (approx. 11 grams)
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 2 1/3 cups all-purpose flour (280 grams)
- 3 teabags/ 3 teaspoons of instant coffee/ 3 capsules of coffee

Secret Ingredients:

You are a magician's apprentice.
Forget about Mickey. The magician never comes back. You will learn from your mistakes.
Courage!
And also, fun. You cannot go wrong here.
You need 1 cup of a warm 3-shot drink.
Could be tea (brewed with 3 tea bags) or warm coffee (with 3 teaspoons/shots of coffee).
Your choice, and it will define the character of your loaf. Enjoy the power.

Optional spice boost:
Up to one teapoon of a combination of any of these:

Pumpkin spice, ground ginger, ground cloves, ground nutmeg, ground cardamon, ground vanilla bean...

And if it is more than one teaspoon total, what's gonna happen?
Koo-RAZH!

Instructions:

1. Preheat your oven to 320°F.

2. Line two standard 8.5 x 4.5-inch loaf pans with parchment paper. If using a Bundt or tube pan, grease well and coat with sugar or flour.

3. In a large bowl, whisk the eggs and sugar until well combined, light in color, and slightly pale.

4. Add the oil and honey, whisking until fully incorporated.

Note: the tea (or coffee) can be warm when you add it (next step) but should not be hot.

5. Slowly pour in the warm tea (or coffee) and vanilla extract while stirring continuously.

6. Add the all-purpose flour, baking powder, salt, and cinnamon (along with your secret spices). Whisk until smooth and uniform.

7. Divide the batter evenly between the prepared loaf pans.

8. Bake at 320°F for 45 to 55 minutes, or until a toothpick inserted into the center comes out dry and clean.

9. Allow the bread to cool completely before removing from the pans and slicing.
